WHO CAN YOU CONTACT TO HELP?

Organizations that Purchase and/or Manage Land for Conservation:

- Ventura Hillside Conservancy
- National Park Service
- National Audubon Society
- California Audubon
- US Fish and Wildlife Service’s National Wildlife Refuge System
- Sierra Club
- The Nature Conservancy (for the Ventura/Santa Barbara region contact: 805/258-7202: nature.org)
- American Bird Conservancy
- Ducks Unlimited
- Birdlife International
- Santa Monica Mtns. Conservancy
- Mountain Restoration Trust

AT YOUR HOME:

- Plant southern California native, drought-tolerant plants
- Conserve water
- Do not spray pesticides/insecticides for ants or other insects; be more clever than them, and kind!
- Do not use rodenticides, including gopher-cides
- Do not use rodent control sticky traps or snap traps (we receive several dead songbirds per year from traps)
- Eat and drink organic and local products whenever possible
- Eat low on the food chain
- Use shade grown coffee and sustainably harvested teas whenever possible
- Drive a fuel-efficient car
- Help educate your neighbors by LIVING the example